

I am writing to encourage the FCC not to loosen media ownership laws. Alternatives to mainstream programming and news information are few enough as it is. Allowing large media conglomerates to become even larger is the wrong direction for a democratic society...and I like a democratic society. Thank you for your time.
Britt Penrod